Before undergoing the donor program it is essential you have met and spoken with your treating doctor and put a treatment plan in place. After having a consult with your fertility specialist you will likely have a chat with our admin and nursing team to ensure you understand the next steps and to answer any further questions. This process can take between 2 to 12 weeks depending on your circumstances.

The steps below all take place prior to you starting your treatment cycle, some of these steps can be done simultaneously, there are costs associated with seeing your doctor, purchasing donor gametes, counselling, some blood and genetic tests and treatment cycles but no costs to speak to our donor coordinator, nurse, admin or treatment team. Many of these costs have a medicare rebate you may be able to access.

For more information or to get started call us on 1300 899 850.
